

Permission to Publish Student Writing

Scribbler's Ink Literary Magazine

The goal of Scribbler's Ink Student Literary Magazine is to encourage young writers and aspiring authors to publish and share their work as well as have the opportunity to see their work in print. The Magazine is a non-profit part of the Online Scribbler's program solely for student enrichment.

I give permission for my child to participate in the 2023 Scribbler's Ink Literary Magazine as part of the Online Scribblers program. I give permission for my child to submit original creative writing pieces and/or original artwork for potential publication in Scribbler's Ink Literary Magazine.

I understand that the only personal information to be published alongside the published writing/artwork is my child's name and age as designated below.

I understand that Scribbler's Ink will be disseminated FREE by Online Scribblers in an online publication ONLY to the families of Online Scribblers students. Printed copies may be made available to interested families for an additional cost if there is enough interest.

Participation in Scribbler's Ink is open to all students who are currently taking a course or have previously taken a course with Online Scribblers. There is no additional purchase required for participation.

Please email this completed form to josie@onlinescribblers.com with Permission Slip, Last Name in the subject line.

Once your permission form is received by Online Scribblers, your child may submit their original writing/art via email to josie@onlinescribblers.com. The subject line should read: Scribbler's Ink, student name.

They will receive a confirmation email once the piece has been accepted into the system.

Students may submit as many pieces as they like though there is no guarantee to publish all items. If editing is required, your child will be asked to make the necessary revisions in order to progress.
